: Over/under bet where players wager on the combined score of a contest.

In-play wagers encompass point spreads, money lines, totals, and more.

How can you bet on sports? Retail vs online

Online wagering affords bettors with varying degrees of convenience, depending on how restrictive a state's sports betting regulations are.In-house only

Nevada has no plans to move to remote registration, but Iowa mandated in-house registration until early 2021, at which time it moved to the much preferred remote online registration.

: Players looking to bet on games already in progress from a retail sportsbook have limited options.

If you can imagine it, an online site probably has it.

Interstate betting hasn't been introduced yet, but time will tell.
