The Complete List of Bookmakers in QatarFAQ

Our Site: Trusted by Millions since 2006

We have been pop-up free, and have never asked for email addresses right from day 1.

We find them intrusive and annoying when we browse the web, so we don't use them.

Pop-ups are a big red flag, when it comes to safety and security.

Usually, being asked for an email address, means the website want to spam you, or sell your address (even if they pretend not to).

Truly Independent, since 2006

That is, we are not part of a huge company where profit for shareholders comes before anything else.

Because we don't have outside investors that we have to answer to, to make money for them, we can remain honest and upfront.
